Automatic transmission

oil MB 236.15

9.58050

DT Spare Parts Automatic transmission oil 9.58050 is a high-performance ATF for use in the newest Mercedes-Benz 7-speed automatic transmission. It is characterised by a sustained, soft gear changing behaviour, excellent oxidation stability and a superior, consistent friction coefficient. The lowered viscosity ensures maximum fuel economy.

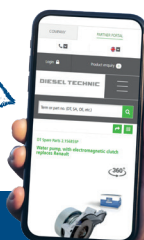

The DT Spare Parts Automatic transmission oil 9.58050 is not backwards-compatible and therefore not suitable for use in older transmissions.
